

August 1 2017

Graeme Steel Resumé

Academic Qualifications and Professional Experience:

- BA Hons., Victoria University of Wellington, NZ 1976
- Diploma of Education, Canterbury University, NZ 1977
- Trained Teachers Certificate, Christchurch Teachers College, NZ 1977
- High School Teacher, 1978/9, 1982-7.

Sport Participation:

- NZ Volleyball team 1973-85, Captain 1983-85. (One of 7 NZ “players of the 1970’s decade”.)
- Coach of national volleyball champion club 1978/79
- International and national coaching qualifications in multiple sports.
- President Volleyball NZ 1989-93, Board member Volleyball NZ 1986-1993, 2013-16
- Patron Volleyball NZ 2013-present.

Anti-doping

- Tested in 1979 (still awaiting result).
- Establishing and evolved an anti-doping programme at NZOC 1988-1993.
- Appointed Chief Executive of NZ Sports Drug Agency 1994
- Continued as CEO of Drug Free Sport NZ 2005 to present.
- Attended majority of significant international anti-doping conferences since 1993.
- Represented NZ NADO in IADA 1994 to present.
- Secretariat for IADA 2001, 2002
- Part of IADA working group creating basis for International Standard for Testing.
- Attended numerous Council of Europe Convention sessions and served on Audit group in Australia.
- ANADO President- 2007-13
- Attended UNESCO Conference of Parties and served on the UNESCO Anti-Doping Fund approval Committee 2012
- Seconded to IOC Medical Commission Sydney Games 2000.
- Served as part of the following WADA Independent Observer Teams:
- 2004 – Davis Cup Final
- 2004 – Athens Olympic Games (Deputy Chair)
- 2006 – Doha Asian Games (Chair) (First IO audit style mission involving daily feedback)
- 2008 – Beijing Paralympic Games (Chair)
- Served on WADA Executive Committee and Foundation Board as second to NZ Sports Minister.
- 2007 – IOC Award for Promotion of Olympism
- 2017 - Mahmoud Khalifah Ali Award. “Recognising those who have contributed significantly to the RADO Program.”

August 1 2017

- 2017 – Received a Queens award as an ‘Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit’ for services to Sport.