

OUR VISION

A world in which athletes at all levels participate in CLEAN SPORT TOGETHER

OUR PURPOSE

To provide ADVOCACY & SUPPORT to ALL NADO MEMBERS across the world.

PRIORITIES

Be an influential, international voice

iNADO plays a leadership role in both advocating for and supporting independent NADO's and sporting partners to influence policy and decision making.

Seek, share & promote best practises

Identify and provide access to up to date innovations and best practice by leveraging the strengths and expertise of iNADO members.

Create, lead and grow a supportive, international member community

Develop a central resource of people, technical platforms and events to meet the diverse needs of iNADO members.

OBJECTIVES

Advocate for independent policy development and decision making in NADOs and all other anti-doping organisations.

Ensure the collective views of NADO's are heard and respected by WADA, sporting and government bodies and athletes.

Promote the recognition and incorporation of the provisions of the "Athlete's Anti-Doping Rights Act" into all relevant elements of the work of members and other ADOs.

Develop and promote effective tools for the sharing of best practice while avoiding duplication of effort.

Improve the efficiency, effectiveness and trust in anti-doping practices

Partner with WADA and other anti-doping organisations to leverage synergies in anti-doping initiatives across organisations.

Facilitate both online and face to face forums for the purposes of communication, developing leadership & building governance capability.

Facilitate NADO to NADO support by connecting members with specific needs to members who have the skills and capacity to assist.

Support and encourage the building of well structured, strong & trusted relationships with each other, WADA, IF's, games organisers and the ITA.

IMPACT

WADA's compliance assessments show year on year improved levels of independence in the governance and activities of NADOs.

Increased representation and influence by iNADO and its members in critical meetings, lobbying, & policy making processes.

Athlete groups, including WADA Athlete Committee, report that their rights & opinions have been actively and accurately promoted.

Member utilization of best sharing tools increases year on year.

Athletes recognise and benefit from increased level of innovation, efficiency and fairness in anti-doping practices.

Problems are identified and solutions developed by multi-lateral approaches led or participated in by iNADO.

Both the culture of the community and the capability of independent NADOs increases year on year.

The number of formal agreements of NADO to NADO support increases each year, in particular supporting new and smaller members.

iNADO is regarded as a leader in promoting collaboration and alignment among all anti-doping organisations.
